

Adding Audio to an IVN Class

If a student is not available to attend an IVN Class or a meeting, one option to consider is adding an audio line. This enables them to dial in and participate remotely via phone (cell phones are NOT recommended). They will be able to be heard by the instructor and students through the videoconference audio speakers. There is no additional charge for this service but arrangements need to be made with your campus IVN Site Coordinator.