

INTERACTIVITY PYRAMID

PRESENT
mini-lecture
expert guest
interviews
case study
story telling

SHOW
objects
pictures
trigger video
participant video
simulation

QUESTION
Q&A
black box
debates
quizzes
fish bowl

PERSONALIZE
name use
e-mail
bio-form
bio-booklet
dialogue

PARTICIPATE
readings
fax/e-mail
group work
field trips
lab sessions

A well balanced selection consists of:

3-5 servings of activities from the Personalize Group

3-4 servings of activities from the Participate Group

2-3 servings of activities from the Show Group

2-3 servings of activities from the Question Group

Sparingly choose from the Presentation Group if one way presentation, use more generously, if mixed use with activities from other groups.

Adapted by Richard A. Berg, UW Extension 2001, from the Interactivity Guide Pyramid developed by Mavis Monson, UW Extension, 1995, based on the Food Guide Pyramid (US Dept. of Ag & US Dept of Health & Human Services, 1993)