

Issues Related to Students with Disabilities and Special Needs

Each campus should have a statement regarding disability services focusing on students with special needs and the supportive services available at each of the sites.

A statement regarding disability access and special needs should be included in the syllabus.

Check with your department to determine who to contact for assistance on your campus and then coordinate with your IVN Campus Site Coordinator.